Late Spring/Early Summer 2010

Meet Your Librarian - 1st in a series

Name: Sara Woodbury

Position: Library Director

Hometown: grew up in Perkinsville, Vermont, a very small village in the town of Weathersfield. Now lives in Amherst.

Family: husband Sid Siff at home, and daughters Rebecca, 25 and Maya, 22 (no longer at home.)

Pets: only in fond memory – Sophie, a black lab who ate a jar of peanut butter, jar and all, and Hamlet, a hamster whose tiny broken leg was set and cast (for free) by an understanding vet.

Hobbies/Interests: reading, gardening, hiking, listening to music, cooking.

How/why did you become a librarian? I thought about opening a bookstore but then realized I would miss the books when they were sold. My mom was my school librarian and also worked in the public library in Springfield, Vermont.

Library pet peeve: People who say libraries are becoming obsolete and no one is reading anymore when we've been busier than ever!

Favorite book as a child: Caddie Woodlawn by Carol Ryrie Brink

From the Children's Desk – Summer Reading 2010

Reading! Recreation! Refreshments!

This year all of us can do our best for the environment with Tilton Library's 3 R's of Summer Reading – Reading (think re-using resources when you read a library book), Recreation (visit the library - reduce out of town trips), and Refreshments (cold treats for a book review!) Sign up begins Saturday, June 19th and ends with our community potluck on August 16th.

Monday Night Music

Bring a chair and a friend for our weekly lawn concerts every Monday (except July 5th) at 7:00 p.m. We will start with a smorgasbord of musicians and ice cream sundaes on June 21st and continue with Jeff Kelley and friends on the 28th. Our line up includes returning favorites Jay Stryker and Jack Cavacco playing upbeat classics from the 30s and 40s on July 12th; vocalist Will Sencabaugh and guitarist Roger Rhinehart July 19th; lively old time tunes with Industrial Waste July 26th; Wooden Ships with Tom Daughton, Jim Ferry and Rob Terreden August 2nd and on August 9th, Chris Jenkins returns with something for everyone. We'll end with FCEP's Frontier Community Band directed by Karen Atherton on August 16th.

Monday Night Music is sponsored by the Friends of Tilton and Deerfield Cultural Council and is free and open to all.

Plant Sale Success

Thank you to all the hard working volunteers and plant donors who helped with our annual plant sale. Without you, we wouldn't have had our most successful year yet! We had everything from houseplants and shrubs to rhubarb and bleeding heart, all at wholesale prices.

*Friday, Sundays
& Holidays* CLOSED

What's on your nightstand? Rock, Paper, Tiger by Lisa Brackmann and Switch: How to Change Things When Change is Hard by Chip Heath and Dan Heath.

What two books would you take to a desert island? A dictionary and a blank journal.

If you weren't a librarian what would you be? – A satisfied writer.

Something about you that might surprise

Tilton patrons: I had a summer job on the Connecticut River attaching radio tags to shortnose sturgeon, I can milk a goat, and I can hula hoop for a really long time!

Guilty pleasure: Reading book review journals at home.

Last book you couldn't put down: The English Major by Jim Harrison and Blame by Michelle Huneven (there's something irresistible about stories of redemption.)

What have you instituted at Tilton that you are most proud of: The smooth transition to C/WMARS, new books every couple weeks, adult programs including author visits and the collaborative Tale for Ten Towns and working with great staff to make the library a welcoming destination.

Short or Long Term Goals: We're always thinking about how to have more space for books and programs.

Parting shot: There are two sides to every story. -mm

Sony Reader – Coming Soon

Thanks to the generosity of the Friends, Tilton Library now owns a Sony Reader available for loan. So far, our electronic library consists of five newly published titles: War by Sebastian Unger, The Help by Kathryn Stockett, Savor the Moment by Nora Roberts, Little Bee by Chris Cleave and Innocent by Scott Turow. The Reader can also be used to borrow titles from the CWMARS digital catalog. Stop by the library office for a demonstration or to make a reservation for the Reader.

Book Drop Reminder

Please check to be sure that all items fall securely into the book drop and are not within reach from the outside. If the drop is full, bring your books in later and we will excuse your fines.

We need all the help we can get to make this a year's sale a successful fund-raiser for our library. Please sign up in the Library if you can help out. -jh

We will also be interviewing walkers, runners and other ascenders during this ode to Wequamps. Contact the Library or go to our website www.tiltonlibrary.org for more information.
