Monday Night Music

What started out as “Make It In for Music” in 2007 is now a local summer tradition. Our sixth annual summertime program begins June 25th with Tyler and TJ Conroy and will be held every Monday evening until our community potluck on August 13th. Music begins at 7 p.m. here at the library, rain or shine. Bring a chair and a friend. This program is sponsored by Friends of Tilton Library and is free and open to all.

SRP Kickoff

“Dream Big - Read”, our summer reading program for all ages, began June 18th with a hot dog supper and performances by Morning Glory Girls Garland and John and Crissy Blunt. Readers can enter to win a NOOK, play bingo to win a pizza gift certificate, or write a book review to get a $1 off coupon at local businesses. Participants can sign up on either library floor.

Friends Book Sale

Deerfield Town Hall at 8 Conway Street, South Deerfield, is again the site for the Friends of Tilton's annual booksale. Members of the Friends enjoy a preview sale on Friday, July 6 from 5-7. (Memberships are available at the library during open hours or at the Town Hall door on Friday evening.) The sale continues on Saturday from 9-2 and on Sunday from 11-2 when all remaining items will be sold for $3 per bag. Donations of books and movies in good condition may be left at Town Hall from 9 – 3:45, Monday through Friday. Please direct all questions to library staff at 665-4683.

Homebound Delivery Service

Deerfield residents who are unable to come to the library because of a permanent or temporary disability can have books and other library materials delivered by library volunteers. Specific titles may be requested or a library staff member will make selections based on reading preference. Contact the library to arrange for this free service.

Summer Reading Connections

Whether it's the Cape, the coast of Maine, camping in Vermont or the Berkshires, a relaxing stay-cation right here or further afield - like London for the Olympics, the Library and the Friends annual booksale have got your reading needs covered. But if you want something right off the presses, summer reading lists abound.

pbs.org/weta/washingtonweek/content/summer-2012-reading-list

(Copy and paste available in our online newsletter. TiltonLibrary.org>About>Newsletter.)

Among the titles appearing on multiple lists with rave reviews are Canada by Richard Ford; Broken Harbor by Tana French; The Cove by Ron Rash; Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn; Bring Up the Bodies by author Hilary Mantel; 11/23/64 by Stephen King and Arcadia by Lauren Groff

When shopping at the booksale, consider looking for titles revered by authors in Unpacking My Library: Writers and Their Books edited by Leah Price. Price takes the reader into writer's houses with detailed photos of their bookshelves. Some favorite books of writers Alison Bechdel, Juno Diaz, Philip Pullman and Stephen Carter include The Price of Salt by Clair Morgan; On Lies, Secrets and Silence: Selected Prose 1966-1978 by Adrienne Rich (This title also accompanied Cheryl Strayed, author of Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail on her redemptive hike.) The God of Small Things by Arundhati Roy; Middlemarch by George Eliot and In Praise of Idleness by Bertrand Russell.

Looking for out-of-print books can be fun at booksales. BookFinder.com tracks the most sought-after out-of-print titles in America. For 2011 they listed Tudor Roses by Alice Starmore (a knitting book), Gather Yourselves Together by Philip K. Dick (not his usual science fiction), Sex by Madonna (a promotional volume), My Pretty Pony by Stephen King, Rage by Stephen King (writing as Richard Bachman), Man in Black by Johnny Cash, Pancakes A-Z by Marie Simmons; Practical Gunsmithing by Edward Matunas; Turkish Delight by Jan Wolkers; The Golden Book of the Civil War by Charles Flato.

The Library will be looking for Path to Power and Means of Ascent, books one and two in Robert A. Caro's The Years of Lyndon Johnson series.

See you there!
